

Decision-Making Action Planning Worksheet

Grounded in Type Intelligence™ skills, this worksheet turns self-awareness into better decisions.

What are your top insights from your report and the session about your decision-making strengths?

What are your top insights about where your decision-making gets overdone, or where something important gets overlooked?

Note down a decision you need to make or a problem you need to solve.

What one or two specific things can you try out to make the most of your decision-making strengths when you tackle this decision/problem?

What one or two specific things can you try out to reduce the impact of your decision-making suggested stretches when you tackle this decision/problem?

Who could act as an accountability partner as you apply this? What support might you need from them?
